

SUPERVISING ATTORNEY'S FINAL EVALUATION

Student: Sarah Mann

Student e-mail: smann09@student.law.du.edu

Date: 8/3/07

Employer: [REDACTED]

Supervising Attorney: [REDACTED]

Supervising Attorney E-mail: [REDACTED]

1. Recommended Grade: pass

2. Evaluation- Please evaluate the student's work using the following elements and check the appropriate number using the following scale:

1 = Poor; 2 = Below Average; 3 = Average; 4 = Above Average; 5 = Outstanding; N/A = Not Applicable.

Written Communication	Selected value
a. Clarity and organization of written communications	4
b. Use of appropriate grammar and style in written work	4
c. Appropriate recognition of audience for oral and written communication	4
d. Legal research and analysis.	5

Oral Communication	Selected Value
a. Clarity and organization of oral communications	4
b. Use of appropriate grammar and style in discussion	4
c. Considerate of audience needs.	4

General-Professional	Selected Value
a. Maturity, judgment and sensitivity	5
b. Dependability, enthusiasm, attitude	5
c. Substantive legal knowledge	3
d. Sensitivity to professional responsibilities/ethical issues	3
e. Overall quality and competence of work	4
f. Time management	5
g. Ability to work with others	na
h. Appropriate relationships maintained with co-workers, clients, and officials	na
i. Responsive to criticism	na
j. Intellectual curiosity	4
k. Problem solving ability	5

3. Please describe the nature of the legal experience and activities in which the student engaged during this internship (subject to attorney/client privilege) Research on a variety of legal issues.

4. Educational goals - were they met in your judgment? Yes

5. Supervision/assignment model - did it work well? Yes

6. Student strengths.

She has unusually high problem-solving skills. Results oriented and creative.

7. Weaknesses, suggestions for the student's improvement. None that experience will not address.

8. Other comments/criticisms/suggestions (about the student, the internship, the internship program) none

9. If you were giving a letter grade, based on your experience with other law student interns, what would it be? A